

SIRO SR5000

Side shade with integrated auxiliary spring element for multiple applications. Box made of extruded aluminium profiles with side end caps, incl. installation flange in aluminium casting with adjustable position 90°. Projection tube made of extruded aluminium profiles with grooves for the cover and the handle. Handle in aluminium casting and continuously adjustable in height. Roller tube made of steel with profile groove for the cover incl. auxiliary spring element for the tension of the cover and for the retraction mechanism. The size of the box allows max. 400 cm cover with 300 g/m². To stop the projection, insert the handle on the fixation SR416 or on the fixation post (option).

Option:

Screw on post with base plate to be fixed on solid ground.

Plug-in post with floor sleeve. The steel execution can be moved easily in additional floor sleeves.